A Word About Catarrh.

"It is the mucous membrane, that wonderful semi-finid envelope surrounding the delicate tissues of the air and food passages, that Catarrh makes its stronghold. Once established, it eats into the very vitals and renders life but a long-drawn breath of misery and disease, dull-

one improved IMPROVED INHALER, neatly wrapped I

EVERY MUSCLE ACHES.

Sharp Aches, Dull Pains, strains and Weakness relieved in one minute by the Cuticurs Auti-Pain Plaster. A perfect antidete to pain, inflemmation and weakness. The first and only pain-killing Plaster. Instactaneous, infallible, safe. Acknowledged by druggists and physicans to be the best yet prepared. At all druggists, 25 punts; five for $1.00; or, postage free, of POTTER DRUG & five for $1.00; or, postage free, of POTTER DRUG & CHEMICAL CO., Boston, Mass.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE STILL ALARM,

HARRY LACY AS JACK MANLEY.

The most successful play of the season."

Gallery, 25c.; Reserved, 35c., 50c., 75c., 81 and $1.50.

CASINO.

ENGLANA BROADWAY AND SUTH BT.

Evenings at R.

A MOST REMARK ABLE BUCGESS.

NORLY TO PLANT RECORDS.

NORLY TO PLANT RECORDS.

OF THE GREATEST COMIC OPERA

SUCCESS ON RECORD.

"ERMINIE."

GREETED WITH ROARS OF LAUGHTER.

May 14-Magnificent Production of "NADUY."

LAST NICHTS
WELK OF THE SKABON. OLD LAVENDER.
DAVE BRAHAM AND HIS POPULAR ORCHESTE.
WEDNESDAY-MATINES-SATURDAY.

DOCKSTADER'S THEATER.

TO-NIGHT (FRIDAY) EVENING.
Also SATURDAY MATINER AND NIGHT.
Elaborate production of W. Fearing Gill's new play.
"THE TWO LIVEN OF DEL JEKYLL.
With the distinguisity young English character actor,
EDW IR Henry Jekyll,
With a powerful cast and street mob scene by college students.

DALY'S To-night at 8.15.

ROSINA Only FOUR MORE PERFORMNORS of this designated tryle bulk and her London Comsety Co. "A PANTOMIME REHEARSAL"

THE CIRCUS-RIDER" and "A PANTOMIME REHEARSAL"

NUBLO'S NIKLO'S

NIBLO'S
NIBLO'S
Reserved seats Orchestra Circle and Balcony, 500.

HELD BY THE ENEMY.

Special Production and Important Cast.

LANT MATTINES AATURDAY ATT.

Not West, CLARA MORRIS.

W ALLACK'S.

W Positively last week of the Wallack Company.

LAY MATINEE SATURDAY.

Thursday and Friday—Shir STOOPS TO CONQUER.

Sat., Mat. and svening—SCHOOL FOR SCANDAL.

Monday, May 7—THE LADY OR THE TIGHT.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.

Reserved seats, orchestra circle and balcony, 80s. WRD. | NAT. C. GOODWIN | MAR. in TURNED UP and LEND ME FIVE SHILLINGS. NEXT WEEK—A HOLE IN THE GROUND,

J. C. DUFF OPERA COMPANY
in the Spectacular Comic Opera.
TO-NIGHT AT S.
BATURDAY MAT. at 2. THE QUEEN'S MATE.

A CADEMY TO RIGHT.

BOWNED ATHEN EUM

BOYCLALLTY COMPANY:

"ANEXT WEEK," Mystery of a Hansom Cub."

EDEN MUSEE, 23D ST. AND STH AVE.

Tableaux in Wax of the Whole World Art Gallery,
ERDELY! NACZI'S ORCHROTRA at Sailery,
ERDELY! NACZI'S ORCHROTRA at Said 8.

H. B. JACOBS'S 3D AVK. THEATER.

Monday, Wednesday
And Saturday.

May 7. "Dr. Jekyll & Mr. Hyda.

TH. AVK. THEATER.

MATINEE SATURDAY.

MATURINA A THEATER.

NATURAL GAS.

MADISON SQUARE THEATRIE. A. M. PALMER.
Sole Manager. J. M. Hill's Union Sq. Thesize Co.
A. POSSIBLE CASE.
by Sydney Rosenfeld.
Evenings 8.30. Malione Saturday at 2.

TONY PASTOR'S THEATRE.
OHARLESA, GARDNER, SEATS 25 CENTS.

THEATRE COMIQUE, 126th et. bet 3d & Lex. over 18 de 18

POOLE'S THEATER Sth st., bet, 4th ave. A B'mar.

On., Wed., AFTER SEVEN YEARS. 20c. and 30c. Next Week-STORM BEATEN—Next Week.

BLJOU OPERA-HOUSE.

Kvening at 8.15.
Matines bat, at 2.

PEARL OF PEKIN.

STAR THEATER.

BROUKMANN'S MONKEY THEATRE DO:
MONKEY AUTORS, PONIES, GOATS, DOOS,
Evenings at 8.30. Matines 3 P. M. Wed., Thurs. Fri.
and Sat. Prices, 81, 75c., 50c., & 25c. Children half price.

THALIA-Farewell performances of Barnay, Possart to-night, Journalisten; Friday, Othello; Saturday, isst combination matince, Faust; evening, Wallen

LYGEUM THRATER. THE WIFE.

BROOKLYN AMUSEMENTS. BROOKLYN H. R. JACOBS,

THIS WEEK:

MONDAY, WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY.

LEE AVE. ACADEMY OF MUSIC, Brooklyn, S. D. Wook of April 30, Matiness Wednesday & Baturday.

Week of April 30, Matinees Wednesday & Habards Rice's Beautiful "EVANGELINE." Week of May 7, Louis James and Marie Wainwright

It Makes a Difference.

[From Harper's Basar.]

stein's Tod.

BROADWAY THEATRE,
J. C. DUFF OPERA COMPANY

HARRIGAN'S PARK THEATRE,
M. W. HANLEY

POTTER DRUG & CHEMICAL CO., BOSTON,

one package, with full directions; price, $1.00.

SEND IN THE PETITIONS.

NOW IS THE TIME TO ANNIHILATE THE WALKER REPEAL BILL.

Sev. Hill Is Merely Walting to Hear the Valce of the People Before Vetoing the Half-Hollday Repeat Measure - " The Brening World's" Fight for the People's Rights Popular With All.

Gov. Hill's expressed desire to consult the wishes of the people in the matter of the repeal of the Saturday Half-Holiday law is baying a good result. The stream of Evening WORLD petitions asking the Governor to veto the Walker bill has grown to a torrent. Gov. Hill should be overwhelmed with these petitions at once. There is no time to be lost. Every name counts, the same as in be lost. Every name counts, the same as in voting. It is hoped that these protests will bury the Walker repeal measure as deep as though the Staten Island hills stood over it. Send in the petitions to-day!

The liveliest interest is taken in The Evenne World's crusade. Everybody signs the restitions.

petitions.

Sergt. McNamara, of the Grand Central substation, put his name to The Evening World's petition. He is a stanch advocate of the appeal as well as admirer of The Evening World's enterprise. "I hope that the Governor will veto that obnoxious bill," said he. "It is a grand, good thing to give the laboring people half a day to themselves. Think of the thousands of men, women, boys and girls who are benefited by the present law. I think that the records will show that we have much less intoxication at present. that we have much less intoxication at present than we did before the Saturday Half-Holiday law was passed."

ent than we did before the Saturday Half-Holiday law was passed."

Letters encouraging The Evening World in its fight for the people come to this office in clouds. Here are a few of them:

A. Loraine, of 203 Grand street, writes:

"Again do I read in the valuable Evening World the noble stand you undertake in the behalf of the working people. We the such a champion as The Evening World, and with the Governor's aid, we will yet beat those inhuman and greedy monopolists who are growing rich through the aid of that muchabused man called the workingman."

W. A. Castle, of Slate Hill. Orange County, N. Y., writes: "Inclosed I forward you several signatures to The Evening World's petition. I thank you for the position you have taken, not only in this matter, but also in showing up the men who have been interested with the people's welfare, and who in showing up the men who have been in-trusted with the people's welfare, and who trusted with the people's welfare, and who take the opportunity of misrepresenting in place of representing our interests."

Thomas Smith, of the Eighteenth Ward, Brooklyn, writes: "I am proud to see the interest that The Evening World is taking in behalf of the working people. The Evening World always takes the part of the working people and will do instice to all. To do World always takes the part of the working people and will do justice to all. To do away with the Half-Holiday law would be an injustice to all. As The Evening World says, the bankers and brokers' hours are five to six a day. They do not think of the tolling mass of people who labor ten hours a day. I am glad to see that there is one paper in the United Steres that will do justice to five to six a day. They do not think of the toiling mass of people who labor ten hours a day. I am glad to see that there is one paper in the United States that will do justice to all. That paper is The Evening World.

That is my paper."

G. A. F., of Brooklyn, writes: "Inclosed you will find my name to add to the rest of free thinking workingmen who have signed your petitions protesting against the highway robbery committed against them by the autocrats of this free country, although not thinking or believing for one moment that Gov. Hill would allow it to become a law."

Patrick J. Hayes, of 8 Dover street, writes: "The Saturday half holiday has been a boon to thousands of toilers of both sexes, Inclosed I send the names of forty-five cracker bakers, all opposed to its repeal or amendment. For your carnest efforts accept their sincere gratitude."

J. Philip Egan, of 115 Carlton avenue. Brooklyn, writes: "Keep on with your good work and we may yet be able to retain our few hours of rest each week, for I believe that our worthy Governor will veto the bill that none but a few moneyed people ask for, while thousands of working citizens are petitioning against it. Why does the money power wish the Half-Holiday law repealed Simply because every day is a holiday with the rich man if he wishes to make it so. Give us the half holiday, that we may at least have, a chance for a few hours each week to take our families to the park or island and inhale a little fresh air and think that we are citizens of a free country and not slaves under the iron hand of a few capitalists. Let the men at Albany that pretend to represent us remember that a day of reckoning is coming, and if the money power controls them in the men at Albany that pretent to represent us remember that a day of reckoning is coming, and if the money power controls them in the Assembly we have the power (and will use it) to leave them at home where the moneyed class will not notice them."

SIGN THIS PETITION

If You Favor the Cause, and Return It to "The Evening World."

To the Hon. David B. Hill, Governor of the State of New York:

The Senate and the Assembly of the State of New Tork having in defiance of public sentiment passed a compromise bill amending the act known as the "Saturday Haif-Roliday Law," which compromise bill will come before you in due course of time, We, the undersigned sitizens of the State of New we, the undersigned stizens of the State of New York, who, as workingmen and workingwomen, have felt the benefit of the Saturday Half-Holiday law as in operation for the past year, do earnesily and respectfully petition that you will use your power as Governor of this State, and veto the bill which strikes at our comfort and takes away from the toiling masses a half day of rest all the year round.

Address.

SONG AND DANCE.

A Reception by the Pupils of Prof. Mark stein at Nilsson Hall.

The pupils of Prof. S. Markstein had a concert and dance last evening at Nilsson Hall, Those who took part in the former were: Master Manfred I. Behrens, Mr. Aloysius Don-aghle, Miss Madeline Owens, Miss Kate Loriaine, Miss Mainle Sage, Miss Lena Goodman, Miss Eu-gente Shuman, Miss Moille Franklin, Miss Louise Boedicker.

Among the guests were:

Among the guests were:

Miss Henrietta Markstein, Gen. and Mrs. H. E.
Owens, Mr. and Mrs. H. Coleman, Miss Dora
Coleman, Miss Lillie Bimburg, Miss Belis Pearl,
Mr. and Mrs. J. Stamper, Miss Jennie Jonnson, Miss Alice Semon, Miss Grecio Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. M. Franklin, Miss Susie Ryan, Miss Jennie
Ryan, Miss Sadie Ityan, Miss Clara Sage, Miss L.
Kennedy, Miss N. Markstein, Miss C. Stewart,
Miss M. Neutner, Miss C. Arnstein, Miss F. McDonald, Louis Hain, C. J. Misch, T. Arnstein, Wolf, A. Kennedy, J. Leve, D. A. Hull, and many members of the Eccentric Baseball Cluo.

Coming Events.

Entertainment of the John F. Mahnken Associa-tion at the Atlanta Casino on Saturday. Theatrical reunion and summernight festival at Sultzer's Harlem River Park on May 18.

The three hundred and forty-fifth regular communication of Shakespeare Lodge, No. 750, F. and A. M., this evening will be of special interest, as the degree of M. M. will be conferred on five eminent fellow-crafts. The work will be done by R. W. Brother Frederick A. Burnham, Chief Commissioner of Appeals.

FLYNN SUED FOR DEBT.

He Tells "The World" Reporter that the Bill Was Paid in Full.

RICHMOND, Va., May 3.—A suit has been insti tuted in the Circuit Court of this city agains Maurice B. Flynn, of New York, and M. S. Forbes, for the sum of $3,100, for a debt asleged to be duthe Western Granite Company. Col. R. Snowden Andrews, of Baltimore, President of the company, made affidavit before the Court that Flynn was about to leave the city as an absconding debtor and he was arrested by the Sheriff and bailed in the sum of $4,000. A prominent real-estate firm became his bondsmen.

Mr. Flynn was seen by an Evening World reporter. He said: "I was bondsman for M. S Forbes in the purchase of granite by him from the Westham Granite Company. Mr. Forbes paid them in full for all granite blocks delivered in Cincinnait which were accepted by the city and used by him. There were a number furnished of inferior quality which Snowden Andrews, President of the company, sought by various means to have accepted, but which the City Engineer refused and for the payment for which Mr. Forbes is in no way responsible. Mr. Forbes owes them nothing and, therefore, I, as his guarantor, am not responsible. I have abundance of property in Richmond which might have been attached, but the method of collection which small men sometimes use to collect fraudulent accounts seems to have been adopted by Mr. Andrews.

"Papers were served on me in the office of the Papers were served on me in the office of th Richmond Union Passenger Railway Company, and a bond was immediately given by two of the directors who were present. The courts will deter rectors who were present. The courts will deter-mine that Mr. Forbes owes the company nothing, but that, on the contrary, he has a ciaim against them for delay and for non-fulfilment of contract.

They Are Youthful Burglars.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
NEWBURG, N. Y., May 2.—The police have unearthed a gang of youthful burglars who have made Port Jervis a centre, and from there burglarized every school-house in their vicinity, robbed farmers and committed other depredations. robbed farmers and committed other depredations. On Saturday night last the school-house at Union-ville was broken into. The next day the gang of boys was discovered in an empty barn near by, but all escaped except Charles De Graw, a lad of seventeen, who confessed that he was one of a gang of five, all under nineteen. They had head-quarters in Bebuck mountains, where they remained when not on a raid or preparing for one. He told where much of the plunder was, and it was recovered. Monday night officers visited a house that De Graw said the gang frequented, and Charles Conklin, seventeen years old, was captured. He, too, confessed, giving names of others of the party, who were then on a raid. Conklin was committed to jail on a charge of burglary. De Graw will be detained until the others are captured before committing. ured before committing.

They Sawed Their Way to Freedom

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., May 3.—Eight criminals escaped from jail yesterday. They had been confined in the iron cell, built on the cage plan.
They sawed through the floor and tunnelled through stones and dirt to the outer foundation wall. They tore the wall away sufficiently to allow each one to squeeze through. The Sheriff and a posse went in pursuit of the men.

Sickness Puts Off Their Trial.

CINCINNATI, May 8.—Judge Sage yesterday continned until November the cases of William Means and John Decamp, charged with ruining the Metropolitan Bank. This was done on account or the serious lilness of Mr. Means, who is in a criti-cal condition from chronic Bright's disease.

A Chicago Lawyer Shoots Himself. [SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.] CHICAGO, May 3. -Gen. Martin T. Beem, one of the foremost lawyers of Chicago, killed himself in Nebraska Wednesday. His relations with his wife have been unuappy for some time, and he went to Nebraska where she was staying to effect a recon-ciliation. It is supposed he failed and shot him-

The Engineer Saw the Danger.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]

LOCKPORT, N. Y., May 3.—An attempt was made Tuesday night to wreck an Erie passenger train due here from Buffalo at 9 o'clock. A railroad tie was placed across the track about a mile and a haif west of the city, but Engineer Eastman saw it in time and a serious accident was prevented.

Cigar Manufacturer-What do you think of my new brand of cigars? What would be a good name for them?
Friend (who is smoking one)—The "Lung-Tester."

But It's Generally True.

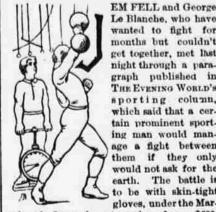

[From the Pitteburg Post.]
It is singular that when a broker lays down every one associated with him gets up on his ear.

To-Day at 12 c'Clock
the Great Sacrifice Sale of MKN's, BOYs' and CHILDR's's
CLOTHING will begin at A. H. KINO & CO.'s, 627 and 629
Broadway—the greatest sacrifice of values in fine clothing ever known in the world. Men's caseimere satis, will made and durable, at 82.75; actually worth 810, Men's supert all-wool suits, worth 815, at 85. Men's strong working pants at 65c. Boys' suits at 99c. Finest quality of all-wool boys' suits, worth 812, at 83.
Guaranteed worth three times the money or money refunded. Don't matake the place, 627 and 629 Broadway, near Bleecker st.
Don't be kumbugged by irresponsible parties who are without name or business standing—627 and 629 Hroadway is the place, at A. H. KINO & CO. s. the selfable clothiers. New, clean, homestly made clothics at less than the cost of making. You can not suit you we will relund the money of making the not suit you we will relund the money is and if within a year, and you will always find A. H. KINO & CO. at 627 and 629
Broadway, sexty to fastly visit ascerse first choice. Come tooday, 'ST' and 629 Broadway, A. H. KINO & CO., great sacrifice sale of fine clothing. To-Day at 12 o'Clock

PUGILISTS AND ATRLETES.

JEM FELL AND GEORGE LE BLANCHE MATCHED TO FIGHT FOR A PURSE.

The Rowing and Canoeing Season Opener A Team of New York Athletic Club Men Selected to Go to England - Sparrow dence-The Cedarburst Entries Closed.

Le Blanche, who have wanted to fight for months but couldn't get together, met last night through a paragraph published in THE EVENING WORLD'S sporting column, which said that a certain prominent sporting man would manage a fight between them if they only would not ask for the earth. The battle is to be with skin-tight gloves, under the Marquis of Queensberry's rules, for a $500purse, and it will take place inside of three weeks, probably in a barge. which will start from some pier convenient for New Yorkers. A finish fight between these men ought to be a hummer. Both are sluggers, pure and simple. Picking a winner is almost like calling a coin that has been tossed up. Fell is taller and longer in the reach, but very little heavier than his solidlybuilt Canadian opponent. Le Blanche is a little the cleverer. An expert, who is right nine times out of ten, will put his money on George for this fight.

George for this fight.

The Nautilus boys launched their handsome new eight-oared boat, the Nautilus, Saturday afternoon, and a crew went to Clifton, where they look dinner. The crew was T. F. Creen, bow: H. Ayres, 2: J. Somborn, 3; L. L. Firuski, 4; W. Whitner, 5; J. Strav, 6: I. Corrigan, 7: Marcus Donally, 8; A. B. Pruden, coxswain. This was the first barge to leave any of the Bay Ridge boathouses since their opening. It awards the houses since their opening. It awards the Nautilus boys "first blood."

The cauceing season has been open for three weeks. On the past two Sundays a merry party of ladies has been seen on the bay in canoes from the New York Canoe Club house at Tompkinsville, S. I.

John Sheurer, of the Olympic Athletic Club, is doing good practice work this season training at the broad and high jumps.

Olympic Athletic Clubman E. H. Hepper is running some strong practice quarter miles.
E. E. Barnes and R. E. Shaw, of this club, are doing some good baseball practice, and E. H. Blackman is training steadily for the spring games. H. J. Hutchinson, another Olympian, promises some good half-mile running this year.

At a meeting of the Governors of the New York Athletic Club on Tuesday evening it was unanimously decided to send the following team of athletes to Europe to compete at the English championships: A. A. Jordan of New York City, for the broad jump and hurdles; E. C. Carter, of New York City, for the one and four mile runs; George Gray, of Toronto, for the shot-putting; C. M. Smith of New York City, for the quarter and half mile runs, and Guy Richards, of New York City, for the high jump. The team will also compete at a number of meetings in Ireland and probably in France. Jordan is at present the all-around champion athlete. He also holds the long-jump and hurdle championships. E. C. Carter is the champion one and four mile runner, and also the crosscountry champion. George Gray, of Toronto, is the champion shot-putter. Smith is an ex-champion half-mile runner, and Richards, although never having had the honor of winning a championship, has more than once proved himself capable of clearing six feet, a championship performance at all times. The team will be accompanied by Prof. Goldie, who will look after the welfare of the men and conduct the business arrangements. rangements.

Two sharp boxing bouts took place at ex-Champion Charley Norton's, in Newark, last night. The principle one was a six-round go between John Carey, of the Scottish Ameri-can Club, of Jersey City, and Young Mc-Guigan, of Newark.

Sparrow Golden has got on at last. He is to meet Mike Boden before a Providence sparring club in a ten-round hard glove con-test for a $500 purse within three weeks.

The Cedarhurst athletic meeting entries closed on Tuesday, but the complete list is hardly ready yet. A California contestant's entry would be good on receipt of the letter postmarked on or before May 1. That all the cracks have sent in their names goes without

The exclusive announcement in yester-day afternoon's Evening World of the great New York-Boston dog fight stirred up a big interest in the sport.

Answers to Correspondents. A. P. —You will find in THE WORLD Almanse the ame laws of New York, Pennsylvania and New game laws of New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

M. E. W.—A list of tariff-reform books supplied

Value Village will be sent upon by The Worl.b's Literary Union will be sent uporeceipt of an addressed envelope.

receipt of an audressed envelope.

J. C. U.—It is a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment, for any person to give another any information whatever concerning a lottery—whether orally, or by signs, or in writing.

THE "PALE FACES."

This is the generic designation of the white race be-stowed by our copper-colored brother, the "noble sav-age." The Caucasian, though many shades lighter, is not specessarily pallid. But when his outside has the pareliment-colored tint and his cheeks the hollowness indicative of a want of bodily stamina, he well deserve the appeliation of "pale face." These facial indication should suggest a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bit ters, an acknowledged rebabilitator of a failing strength and renewer of bedily substance. It is derived ex-clusively from botanic sources—is pure and efficient. Its invigorating action is prompt, thorough and speedily felt. Can the like be said of most tonics? Scarcel; Appetite, as well as the ability to satisfy it without sub-sequent discomfort, is renewed by it, and it effectually tones the liver and bowels. It fortifies the system against

NAME THE CLUBS!

Here Is a Chance for the Baseball Prophets

There are in all communities a large number of baseball prophets who think they can name the final standing of the eight clubs in either the National League or American Asso ciation before the season is half finished.

As the race for the two pennants this year will probably be more interesting than ever THE EVENING WORLD offers two prizes of $25 each to the person or persons who will ar range the clubs of either the League or the American Association in the order in which they shall finish this season.

An observance of the following conditions will be required:

1. All the guesses must be written on the clips cut from THE EVENING WORLD.
2. The name and address of every person entering the contest must be written in full on the site, and no person will be permitted to enter more than once.

and no person will be permitted to enter more than once.

3. The entries for this contest will close June 1, and must be received in the office of THE EVENING WORLD on or before that date.

4. The alips must be addressed to the Baseball Editor of THE EVENING WORLD. They will be doly placed on file, and at the close of the season the distribution will be made, and the lucky contestants will receive due notice of their success. If there be more than one successful guesser, each will receive an equal share of the $25.

CONTEST SLIP.

League, or Association 7.....

Following is a chronological schedule of games to be played during the season by the New York and Brooklyn clubs, at home and abroad. Lovers of baseball should paste it

....Cincinnati 23, 24, 23,St. Louis 28, 29, 30,Louisville September 1. 2. 2. 5. 7. 8. 9. 2, 3, 4, Baltim

Fixed for Forging Cigarette Labels. Before Recorder Smyth yesterday José S Molins, a commission broker at No. 278 Pear street, was charged with forging the cigarette rade-mark of the Havana firm of James A Bances and selling the bogus labels to firms in this city making domestic cigarettes. The complain-ant was Henry M. Morris, of No. 85 Pearl street, ant was Heary M. Morris, of No. 85 Pearl street, the sole agent in this country for Bances cigarettes. The trade-mark—'' Flor de Tabacos de Partagas y Ca."—was patented at Washington and gave him the exclusive right to use it. Assistant District-Attorney Davis appeared for the prosecution. Exaesistant United States District-Attorney Forster defended Molins. The trial occupied five days and resulted in a verifiet of guilty. The Recorder imposed a fine of $350. The case will be carried to the Court of Appeals.

FORT ASSINIBGINE, Mon., May & .- The opening of this great Indian Reservation has created much of this great Indian Reservation has created much excitement among those unfamiliar with its boundaries. Over one hundred settlers have staked out claims on the Military Reservation on the banks of the Sandy, where the Government hay fields are situated, and have even erected houses. Obeying orders, Major Carroll, of the First Cavairy, and Lieut. Hoyle, with troops, notified the squatters that they would have to remove by Wednesday. Many of them have faitly refused, and it is feared there will be trouble.

Officers for the Contractors' Exchange. At a meeting of the Contractors' Exchange held at its headquarters, in the Stewart Building, yes-E. Crimmins, President; John G. Smith, Vice-President; Charles J. McKim, Treasurer and Sec-retary; Terence A. Smith, Pinancial Secretary. Executive Committee—Mathew Baird, Charles Jones, William E. Dean, John McKim, William Keily.

BUSINESS NOTICE. THE BEST CURE FOR COLDS AND AFFEC-tions of the breathing organs is Parker's Ginger Tonic. PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM never fails to piease.

duty.
"I will grant no private interview to you,
Mr. Woodruff. What you say to me must be said before Mr. Peters."

Mr. Woodruff. What you say to me must be said before Mr. Peters."

"It's quite safe to talk before him, Lena, though deuced awkward to have a third party present when you feel it to be the most solemn moment of your whole life. I have come, Lena, to beg your forgiveness for my jealousy at the ball, and my foolish way of showing it. But Lottie is my cousin—we were boy and girl together. I didn't think you would take it seriously, and out of revenge tie this old fellow to your apronstrings."

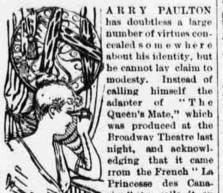

"I wish," said Lena, "you would adopt a more respectful tone when speaking of Mr. Peters, my affianced husband."

"What!" shouted Charlie.

Peters looked up from the volume of poems, and said, blandly:

THE QUEEN'S MATE" PROVES A SUCCESS AT THE BROADWAY THEATRE.

An Illustration of Colossal Assurance-Judge Gildersleeve Said to be Interested in "Paul Kauvar"-"Held by the Enemy" to Run Next Senson-Manager Roth to Have a Benefit on May 16, modesty. Instead of calling himself the adapter of "The Queen's Mate." night, and acknowledging that it came from the French " La ries," he calls it an original comic opera original comic opera by Mostyn Tedde and himself-or rather, by himself and Mostyn Tedde. Let that pass, however. "The Queen's Mate" will undoubtedly prove a substantial success at the Broadway Theatre. It is infinitely superior to the worthless, unmusical nonsense which is palmed off upon an unsuspecting public nowadays and called comic opera. The music by Lecocq, Jakabowski and others is fresh, tuneful and lively. It is never likely to be whistled on the street or to prove an "Erminie" or a "Mikado," but it is just bright enough to near without fatigue for two or three hours. Three hours! Manager James C. Duff is responsible to a large audience for a four hours' sojourn in the Broadway last night. "The Queen's Mate" did not close until midnight—rather a dangerous experiment on Mr. Duff's part, and one that might readily have been avoided. Take a long, sharp knife, Mr. Duff, and back at " The Queen's Mate" for about half an hour. It will stand it. Nearly all the third act is stupid, tedious and irrelevant; the "chestnut" episode takes up a great deal of valuable time, and is simply inaue. The first act can also be relieved of superfluous padding. The setting of the opera is magnificent, nothing more nor less. More beautifu and tasteful costumes, and more sumptuous scenery have rarely if ever been seen in this scenery have rarely if ever been seen in this city. "The Lace Palsoe," at the end of Act III., revealing the big staircase, roused the audience, and there were loud cries for Mr. Hoyt, the scenic artist. As a spectacle alone "The Queen's Mate" would be worth seeing. There was an excellent cast. The honors of the evening were easily won by Miss Lillian Russell, whose voice was in excellent condition Miss Russell was a lovely picture to look at. She is no longer fat—merely delicately plomp. She was handsomely dressed. Miss Camille D'Arville, a new-comer, pleased the audience. She has a good, clear, musical voice of not very conspicuous power. Harry Paulton was fairly funny. The evidences are that he intended to be very funny, but intentions in such cases generally frustrate results. J. H. Ryley an I W. H. Clark as Patagues and Bombardos, rival generals, were amusing. Mézieres and Duplaw, who appeared in the opera a few years ago with Aimee and Angele, were far more amusing. Harry W. Emmet made an entertaining Prince. Frederic Darrell as an innkeeper was rather weak.

Rather a funny incident, illustrative of colossal Thespian cheek, occurred at the close of the performance. A great many actors from neighboring theatres came in in time to see the second scene of the last act. Among the late comers was Robert C. Hilliard and Miss Genevieve Lytton, from "A Possible Case." Mr. Hilliard looked extremely surprised because the usher did not know him, and he was forced to introduce himself with an "I'm Mr. Hilliard." That wasn't where the funcame in, however. The house was packed from top to bottom, and people were standing around the theatre three rows deep. Mr. Hilliard calmly remarked to the usher: "I'd like two seats, please, and as near the stage as possible." Mr. Hilliard had to go on liking. Rather a funny incident, illustrative of colos-

J. W. Pigott, who has been busily making arrangements for the production of "Fitz-noodle," will probably secure a metropolitan theatre for that purpose within four weeks.

Mr. Pigott has great faith in "Fitznoodle,"

It is said that Judge Gildersleeve is interested in "Paul Kauvar." The legal gentleman is an ardent admirer of Steele Mackaye. His interest in the revolutionary play is said to be "cared for" by Henry Clay Miner. Dignitaries seem to be developing extremely theatrical tastes. President Clevelaud has been a regular theatre-goer in Washington during the past season. Gov. Hill on Tuesday night vigorously applauded "She" at Albany.

Albany.

As W. J. Florence has decided that Toole's London success, "The Don," is too local for Americans he will have to depend upon his usual repertoire, the production of "Heart of Hearts" and a new comedy which has been written for him has an American as been written for him by an American.

The season of both of the 'Held by the Enemy' companies will close Saturday night. The profits of the company which has been playing through the big cities has been very large, and brought in $7,000 more than it did last season. Both organizations will start on tour again in September, which will make the third season of the play in this Nat Roth, the Adonis-like manager of the Theatre Comique, Harlem, is to have a benefit May 16. It is a grateful little offering from those who appreciate Mr. Roth's beauty, talent and energy. A great many popular people have volunteered to appear.

A little man with an injured smile was run ning about Union square yesterday with the copy of a dramatic paper under his arm.

"Oh," he said tearfully. "they say that 'The Black Flag' people disbanded and that they floated home on their trunks. Please deny it. I'm their manager, McClave. We didn't float home on our trunks. We ca e

"I did not say anything."
"Oh! you heard that, did you? Thundering—you—you!" muttered Charlie, choking with rage. "It is not true—it cannot be true.

"Yes, it is, Charlie—Mr. Woodruff," answered Lena, beginning to melt at sight of her lover's surprise and pain. "You know I never would have thought of such a thing if it had not been that you triffed with my feelings, sir—I mean I do not wish you to remain here any longer, as I am engaged to another man."

"But you love me,"
"Yes, of course I do; but then—I mean no—and you behaved very badly, you know you did!"
"Yes, I did, but I'm sorry. It's hard on Peters, but I will just tell him how matters stand; that you accepted him to spite me, and now you wish you hadn't, because I've come to tell you that I have gained my father's consent to our marriage; and Peters will do the gentlemanly thing and give you up."

him a word about it,"
"Why not? I'm not going to let any one else marry you—not with my consent,"

FROM BOX OFFICE AND STAGE | back to reorganize. We haven't been successful, but—oh! please say it—we didn't float home."

Miss Rosina Vokes has already arranged her tour for next season, which will extend as far West as Denver. She will reach New York about this time next year, and will again occupy Daly's theatre. Miss Vokes is doing a large business at present.

Once established. It eats into the very vitals and renders life but a long-drawn breath of misery and discase, duiling the sense of hearing, trammelling the power of speech, destroying the faculty of smell, tainting the resth and killing the refined pleasures of taste. Ingidiously, by creeping on from a simple cold in the head, it assaults the membranous imig and envelops the bones, eating through the delicate coats and causing inflammation, sloughing and death. Nothing short of total eradication will secure health to the patient, and all alleviatives are simply procrastinated sufferings, leading to a fatal termination. Sampond's Radical Cura. by Asadation and by Internal administration has never failed; even when the disease has made frightful inroads on delicate constitutions, hearing, smell and taste have been recovered and the disease thoroughly driven out."

Sampond's Radical Cura consists of one bottle of the Habitcal Cura, one box Cayarantal Solvent and one improved Improved Implement Inhalten, neatly grapped in Miss Victoria Siddons, who for some reason Miss Victoria Siddons, who for some reason which is concealed, announces herself as the great grand-daughter of the famous Mrs. Siddons, appeared at Dockstader's 'ast night in "As You Like It." Miss Siddons is intelligent and pleasing, but Shakespear's comedy is not one to be attempted by beginners. Miss Siddons has a great deal to learn. She was supported by Edmund Fales Coward, Alfred Young, Miss Helen Fuller, Miss Ada Webster and Miss Beverly Sitgreaves.

Manager H. R. Jacobs vesterday secure the control for next season of the fire-proof theatre which is now being built in that section of Philadelphia known as Kensington The new house will be opened early in Sep tember and will be run in connection with the fifteen other theatres now under Mr Jacoba's personal management, with a scale of prices similar to that now in vogue at the Third Avenue and Brooklyn theatres. Man ager Jacobs is equipping six companies to take the road in September. These are "Stricken Blind," "Lights o' London." "Romany Rye." "Wages of Sin," the Kimball Opera Company and the Kimball Merry-Makers.

DID FARRISH SHOOT, TOO?

The Adams-Martin Tragedy at Jackson

Miss., to Be Investigated. New ORLEANS, La., May 3.-The publisher of the New Mississippian gives the following account of the tragedy at Jackson Tuesday: "Martin was returning to his office from his dinner at about 2 o'clock, when he was met midway between his home and his office by Gen. Adams and a friend, who had left the post-office a few minutes earlier and were proceeding towards Martin's home. An eye-witness, Walter Johnson, who was standing near, states that Adams stopped Martin and engaged him in conversation for about a minute, gaged him in conversation for about a minute, when Adams drew his piston and fired, knocking Martin's hat off. Adams's second shot brought Martin to his knees. The latter experienced considerable difficulty in drawing his pistol, but finally succeeding, he fired rapidly. A third shot by Adams caused Martin to fall flat on his back. After a few seconds, however, he partially rose, and, steadying himself on his cibow, shot Adams directly through the heart, killing him instantly." 'Owing to the fact that Martin is believed to have received four shots while only three chambers of Adams's pistol were empty, some auspicion attaches to Ned Farrish, Adams's friend, and an investigation will be held.

The Mob StrungHim Up.

SERMINGHAM, Ala., May & .- Sheriff Truss made ready Tuesday night with three deputies to go to War rior, twenty miles north of here, on the midnight train to defend from mob violence George Martin who in the afternoon, while resisting arrest, had shot and killed Acting Town Marshal Owen Kelly. Just before their train came through a telegram was received saying Marin had been safely placed aboard a freight train and would be brought here. A little later, however, another telegram arrived stating that the train was cetained by a mob. The mob heard the prisoner was about to be shipped and made a rush for the train and captured it. While some of them stood guard over the engineer and fireman others uncoupled the caboose, in which were Martin, his brother William and the officers. Martin was taken from the officers and hing to a tree. Then the contents of half a dozen guns and pistols were empited into his body, killing him almost instantly. Owen Kelly had not served as marshal twenty-four hours. who in the afternoon, while resisting arrest, had

St. Louis Brewers Will Not Strike. St. Louis, May 2 .- The Working Brewers' Union has adopted resolutions that in view of the situa-tion in other cities they will not press their de-mands at present upon the boss brewers, but con-tinue to work at present wages and hours.

Another Name for the Roll of Merit. maximum number of marks and stood at the head of Class C in the Primary Department of Grammar School 26 last week.

Carl Schurz has an interview with Bismarck. Sophomores win the class boat race at Harvard.

The Australian colonies refused to receive Chi-Rosa Smith, of Erie, Pa., takes her life with boison, because editors would not print her Harvard's Overseers adopt a resolution restrict ing athletic sports without abolishing intercollegiat John Hodel, of Turnersville, Conn., who a year ago murdered his wife and two children, is sent to prison for life.

Lawyer McClintock's house in Union City, Pa., blown up with dynamite, because he led an an license crusade. It is rumored that Archbishop Walsh, of Dublin, may resign because his conscience will not permit him to carry out the Pope's orders.

In the Spring

Nearly everybody needs a good medicine. The impurities which have accumulated in the blood during the cold months must be expelled, or wheat the mild days come, and the effect of bracing air is lost, the body is table to the serious distance or come disease. liable to be overcome by debility or some serious disease. The remarkable success achieved by Hood's Sarsaparilla and the many words of praise it has received, make it worthy your confidence. Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold b a. 81; siz for 85. Prepared by C. I. HOOD &

The only non-Alcoholic Vegetable medicins put up in liquid form over discovered.

It cures all discasses arising from billiousness and blood impurities. A safe, sure, and gentle cathartic, cleansing the system thoroughly. The old style is slightly bitter. The New is pleasant to the taste, and the best medicine in the world for children. Price $1.00.

McDONALD DRUG CO., N. Y. City.

Charlie jumped up in haste, and turned

Charlie jumped up in haste, and turned furiously on Peters, when, fortunately, the door opened, and Lena's father entered.

'Don't make a scene! Go quietly," whispered the young girl, in an imploring tone. Seeing it was useless to hope for any further private conference, young Woodruff immediately took leave.

Shortly after Mr. Peters rose, and said, with a suile. with a smile with a smile:

"Lena, I have sat out all your visitors, I must go myself now. Will you accept this necklace, and wear it occasionally in memory of one who will always love you very death?"

dearly?"

As he placed the trinket in her hand his voice trembled; and glancing up at him, she noticed that his face was pale, even to his lips. He left her without his usual kiss, but that

He left her without his usual kias, but that might have been because her father was present.

All that night the wretched girl paced her room, a prey to remorse and despair. By her own folly she had wrecked her reace of mind and thrown faway her own happiness just when it lay within her reach.

She was at times moved by her misery to tell Mr. Peters all, and, throwing herself Husband (all ready for the theatre)—I declare, dest. It's taking hard.

Wile (buttoning her gloves)—Well, what's a little rain? One would think from your tone of voice that we were about starting for church.

her.
"Was it," she asked herself, "just to him to marry him when she loved another?"
Morning came and found her still debating, still undecided what to do.
She struggled down to breakfast, where She struggled down to breakfast, where everybody remarked the haggardness of her everybody remarked the haggatutes of the looks.

The letters came. Among them was one for Lena from Mr. Peters. It ran thus:

Dear Lena: In your excitement yesterday you and your visitors spoke louder than you were aware of; consequently I heard everything that was said by all of you. The desire to know your real feelings towards me prompted me not to expose that I was not so deaf as you and your friends took me to be. After a long, sleepless sight of reflection I have arrived at the conclusion that is would be best for all concerned that our enjugament should cease—in fact, after what I have learned of your feelings for another, it will be impossible for me to marry you. Very truly yours,

William M. Prassa.

It was with a beavy heart that, a few hours

DEAR CHARLIE: I am free. Come around,

BY A. B. ELDEB. (Concluded.)

ID I—did I?" inquired Lena eagerly.

"Yes, you did. You carried it off well;

"Yes; and it will be all right, though you seem mad now. Lena. I own it was foolish bad, because you always were half crazy after Charlie too well to refuse him and love Charlie for a little joke like that!"

Mr. Peters let the book fall. He picked it up leisurely, and broke the silence by inquiring if they had spoken to him. On their replying they had not, he took a volume of poems from the centre-table and was soon deep in it.

Lottie gazed at him with an expression almost of diagnat.

"If I thought," she said, "you could pre-"

"Yes; and it will be all right, though you it was foolish bad, because you alway to torment you, for there is no pain like jealousy; but you are too sensible and love Charlie too well to refuse him and love Charlie for a little joke like that!"

"Refuse him!" echoed Lena. "Why, he has never proposed to me."

"I know that, but he means to now. It was all a game of cross-purposes, and you are as good as—as good as—as good as—of cross-purposes, and you are too sensible and love Charlie for a little joke like that!"

"Refuse him!" echoed Lena. "Why, he has never proposed to me."

"I know that, but he means to now. It was all a game of cross-purposes, and you are as good as—as good fer that clumsy lout to my handsome, noble Cousin Charlie, I would never speak to you again!"

Lena looked at the "lout" in an agony of fear lest he had heard: but his face was as blank and as steady as the side of a house. Lottie continued:

"But Charlie suffered awfully as soon as "With this parting shot, Lottie skipped out of the room. DEAF MR. PETERS.

"But Charlie suffered awfully as soon as the first pique was over, and begged me to come to you and make it all right."

"Indeed!" exclaimed Lena, coldly.

"Yes; and it will be all right, though you seem mad now, Lena. I own it was foolish and wrong to torment you, for there is no pain like jealousy; but you are too sensible and love Charlie too well to refuse him and make him wretched for life for a little joke like that!"

"Refuse him!" echoed Lena. "Why, he has never proposed to me."

With this parting shot, Lottie skipped out of the room.

"May I speak to you privately?" demanded Charlie, with a look at Peters.

"No: I would sooner you would speak before him."

"What do you mean by that, Miss Whitely?" asked Charlie, hotly, "Do you mean that you are going to carry your resentment towards me so far as to subject me to the indignity of being secondary to any man alive, when—when you are as good as—as good as."

rid of him? I must see you alone."

She hesitated. What should she do—what ought she to do? She determined to keep faith with the man who had acted uprightly and henorable with her, and not to put herself in the way of temptation.

She therefore replied, after a few moments of this inward conflict between love and duty.

"No, no! not for the world! Don't tell upon his generosity, leave it to him to release

It was with a beavy heart that, a few hours later, Charles Woodruff opened a note, without looking particularly at the hand, brought him by a red-cap messenger. It contained only a few words: